Frequently Asked Questions

What is the purpose of maintaining a Register of Assets, and what items are included in this register? The Register of Assets includes permanent assets like machinery and equipment costing Rs. 10,000 or more. It is maintained to track such assets' value, life, and acquisition cost.

How are organizations' accounts monitored, and what is the scope of the audit process? Accounts are subject to inspection by government-appointed officers and may be subject to test checks by the Comptroller and Auditor General of India.

Is there an agreement bond that organizations must sign when receiving grants, and what are the implications of this bond? Organizations must execute an Agreement Bond committing them to comply with conditions in the sanction letter. Failure to do so may result in the need to refund the grant with interest as determined by the Government.

What documents are required to be regularly submitted by organizations receiving grants, and at what intervals? Organizations receiving grants must submit quarterly progress reports in July, October, January, and April. These reports provide performance data for the relevant periods.

How are funds allocated, and what is the timeline for the submission of applications by organizations? Funds are allocated based on approved proposals and recommendations. Applications should be submitted to State Committees in the first quarter of the financial year for consideration.

What expenses are admissible under this scheme, and how flexible is the list of admissible items? Admissible expenses include rent, equipment, staff honorarium, stipends, tuition fees, materials, stationery, contingencies, and more. The list is illustrative, and assistance may be provided for any other purpose connected to the scheme's activities.

Could you clarify what is meant by "Related Activities" as mentioned in the scheme's benefits? "Related Activities" include any initiatives that align with the scheme's objectives for the socio-economic development and livelihood generation of Scheduled Castes.

What healthcare facilities are provided through this scheme, and what is the cost limit for certain services? The scheme supports medical facilities, including hospitals and mobile dispensaries, with a cost limit of ₹10,000 per month for ten-bedded hospitals, subject to ₹1,000 per visit/day for visiting specialists.

Can you explain the scope of educational initiatives covered by this scheme? The scheme encompasses various educational initiatives like opening hostels, schools, vocational centers, tuition fee support, and training in Information Technology, specifically at approved institutions.

Who is eligible to apply for grants under this scheme, and what conditions apply to voluntary organizations? Eligible organizations include those registered under relevant laws, having at least 60% Scheduled Caste beneficiaries, and meeting specified criteria outlined by the Ministry.

In what instances may organizations be required to refund a part of the grant they received? Organizations may need to refund the grant with interest if they fail to abide by the conditions stipulated in the Agreement Bond.

How is the second instalment released, and what are the requirements for this release? The second instalment is released upon receiving the audited statement of accounts, a utilization certificate, and an inspection report, along with a recommendation from the State Committee.

How are assets of permanent value, machinery, and equipment tracked by organizations receiving grants? Organizations maintain a Register of Assets as prescribed under GFR, listing items costing Rs. 10,000 or more and with a life of at least 5 years.

How are funds allocated based on the accepted proposals, and what criteria are considered in this allocation? Funds are allocated as per approved proposals and recommendations, with considerations like the project's feasibility and alignment with the scheme's objectives.
