This scheme has been in operation since 2003 and has enrolled 1,09,534 workers from 19 unorganized sectors and 17 self-employment occupations until September 2019. The scheme is aimed at helping wage-employed and self-employed workers between the ages of 21 and 60 years who work in unorganized sectors and have an average family income of not more than Rs. 10,000 per month.ÿ¿Under the ASSP scheme, each subscriber (worker) is required to contribute a sum of Rs. 50/- per month, and the State Government also contributes an equal matching amount of Rs. 50/- per month. The State Government/Bank pays interest on the balance at credit of a subscriber annually at the rate declared by the Government.ÿ¿The total contribution, along with interest as declared from time to time, will be refunded to the workers on attaining the age of 60 years, or in the event of the account becoming inoperative due to death or permanent total disability due to accident or loss of two eyes or two limbs or loss of one eye or one limb in an accident or prolonged default in making contributions. ÿ¿In summary, the ASSP scheme provides a financial safety net for unorganized workers in Tripura. Eligible workers can enroll by paying a monthly contribution of Rs. 50, which is matched by the State Government. The contributions earn interest, and the total amount, including interest, is refunded to the workers when they reach the age of 60 years, or in the event of the account becoming inoperative due to certain circumstances. BenefitsFinancial security: The scheme provides financial security for unorganized workers in Tripura, who may not have access to other financial safety nets.Low contribution amount: The monthly contribution of Rs. 50 is a nominal amount that is affordable for most workers in unorganized sectors.Matching contributions from the government: The State Government matches the contribution made by the worker, doubling the benefit amount.Interest on contributions: The contributions made by the workers earn interest, further increasing the amount that they will receive on maturity.Age-based maturity: The scheme provides a maturity benefit to workers when they reach the age of 60 years, providing a retirement benefit for workers.Disability and death benefit: In the event of permanent total disability or death due to an accident, the account holder or their nominee will receive the maturity benefit, providing a safety net for the worker's family.Easy enrollment process: The enrollment process for the scheme is straightforward, making it accessible to a large number of workers.Incentivizes timely contributions: The scheme incentivizes timely contributions by providing a lock-in period of three years and returning the contributions to workers who default for prolonged periods, encouraging them to make regular contributions to the scheme.EligibilityAll wage-employed and self-employed workers between the age of 21 and 60 years in the unorganized sectors in the state of Tripura and having an average family income of not more than Rs. 10,000/- per month, are eligible to be covered under the scheme. Initially, one person in a family will be eligible to get benefits under the scheme. The eligibility ceiling of family income may be re-fixed by the State Government from time to time.The family for the purpose of the scheme will include the beneficiary, the spouse, the wholly dependent daughters, wholly dependent minor sons and wholly dependent parents.The period for the calculation of average family income will be 12 months prior to the month in which the application is made. The major source of income of the beneficiary and the income of his family members taken together should be from their work as wage-employed or self-employed workers in one or more employments or occupations (as notified from time to time under the scheme). Workers covered under the Employees' Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952 will not be eligible to be covered under the scheme.ExclusionsWorkers above the age of 60 years: The scheme is only available for workers between the ages of 21 and 60 years.Workers in organized sectors: The scheme is only available for workers in unorganized sectors and self-employment occupations.Workers with a family income above Rs. 10,000 per month: The scheme is only available for workers with an average family income of not more than Rs. 10,000 per month.Non-payment of contributions for twelve consecutive months: If a worker does not make contributions for twelve consecutive months, their account will be considered to be in prolonged default, and they will not be eligible for the maturity benefit until the lock-in period is over.Withdrawal before maturity: The contributions made by the worker can only be withdrawn after the lock-in period of three years, except in the case of permanent total disability or death.Exclusion due to criminal activity: The scheme excludes workers who have been convicted of a criminal offense.Ineligible age or occupation: Workers who are younger than 21 years or older than 60 years or who are not engaged in unorganized sectors or self-employment occupations are not eligible for the scheme.Exclusion due to false information: The scheme excludes workers who provide false information or documentation during enrollment.Application ProcessOfflineStep 1: Obtain Application FormObtain Form I (Annexed to this Scheme) from the concerned Block Development Officer of the Block/Executive Officer of Nagar Panchayet/Chief Executive Officer of Municipal Council/Commissioner of Agartala Municipal Corporation (as the case may be).
