there any provision for Kala Gaurav Puraskar beneficiaries to apply for other art-related schemes, such as the Kala Samman Scheme?
Yes, if Kala Gaurav Puraskar beneficiaries meet the criteria for the Kala Samman Scheme, they can apply for it. Similarly, Kala Samman beneficiaries can also avail the benefit of Kala Gaurav Puraskar if they fulfill its specific criteria.Are there any exclusions or limitations regarding who can receive the Kala Gaurav Puraskar?Yes, individuals who have received the State Cultural Award or have already availed of the benefit under the Kala Gaurav Puraskar scheme previously are not eligible.Can you provide more details about the eligibility criteria for artists to be considered for the Kala Gaurav Puraskar?Certainly. To be eligible for the Kala Gaurav Puraskar, an artist should be an individual artist, at least 60 years old, and have made substantial contributions to their respective field of art for a minimum of 10 years, specifically in Goa.What is the primary objective of the Kala Gaurav Puraskar, and why is it important for artists in Goa?The primary objective of the Kala Gaurav Puraskar is to recognize and felicitate artists who have made significant contributions to the field of Art and Culture in Goa. It is important because it honors their lifetime achievements and appreciates their invaluable cultural contributions.Can artists from diverse fields of art, such as traditional and contemporary, visual and performing arts, apply for the Kala Gaurav Puraskar?Yes, the Kala Gaurav Puraskar is open to artists from various fields, including traditional and contemporary, visual and performing arts.Are there specific guidelines on what constitutes "substantial contributions" in the field of art and culture, especially for artists from lesser-known art forms?Substantial contributions are assessed based on an artist's impact, recognition within their field, and contributions to their art form's development. Lesser-known art forms are equally valued.Can artists with international acclaim, who have represented Goa on global platforms, apply for the Kala Gaurav Puraskar?Yes, artists with international acclaim are eligible if they meet other criteria and have contributed significantly to Goa's cultural scene.How does the scheme assess the impact of an artist's work on the local community, especially for artists involved in community-based or folk arts?The scheme typically assesses impact through documentation, community testimonials, and the artist's active role in local cultural preservation.Are there age restrictions beyond the 60-year requirement, such as an upper age limit for applicants? The primary age requirement is 60 years. There's typically no upper age limit for eligible artists.Can artists with disabilities who have made outstanding contributions to art and culture in Goa apply, and are there specific criteria for their eligibility? Yes, artists with disabilities are eligible, and the scheme often considers their unique contributions and challenges.Can artists who have received other national or state awards still apply for the Kala Gaurav Puraskar?Yes, artists with other awards can still apply if they meet the scheme's eligibility criteria. Awards from other institutions can be considered a testament to an artist's excellence.Can you provide more details about the recommended format for the Recommendation Letter required for the Kala Gaurav Puraskar application?The Recommendation Letter should be a formal letter that outlines the reasons for nominating the artist. It should ideally come from someone familiar with the artist's work, such as an expert in the field, a fellow artist, or a respected institution.Can you elaborate on what should be included in the Biodata of the nominee for the Kala Gaurav Puraskar application?The nominee's Biodata should provide a comprehensive overview of their artistic journey, including their achievements, career highlights, notable works, and any relevant personal details such as educational background. For nominees who are non-resident Indians (NRIs) or Overseas Citizens of India (OCIs), what documentary proof is needed, and how should they verify their eligibility?NRIs or OCIs typically need to provide documentation verifying their status, such as a copy of their passport and relevant visas or permits. This helps establish their eligibility for the award.Sources And ReferencesCitizen's CharterApplication FormOkWas
