What is the maximum cost of a T.V. set that can be provided under the scheme?The cost of the T.V. sets, including all accessories, should not exceed â, '25,000 for coloured sets. However, for Black and White T.V. sets, the maximum reimbursable amount is â, '12,000. What obligations do the management or unions have regarding the operation of the T.V. sets?The management or union must ensure that the T.V. sets are maintained in good working condition and that programmes are exhibited for the benefit of workers on a day-to-day basis. What are the repercussions if the management or unions fail to comply with the scheme's provisions?If the management or union fails to comply with the scheme's provisions or agreement, the Goa Labour Welfare Board reserves the right to withdraw the T.V. set or recover the grant-in-aid amount with interest. Can an industrial establishment receive more than one T.V. set under the scheme?No, only one T.V. set is provided to an industrial establishment, even if the establishment has a club sponsored by the union. Are there any specific criteria for the installation of T.V. sets under the scheme?Yes, suitable accommodation for the installation of T.V. sets must be provided by the management or union. What are the responsibilities of the management or union regarding the maintenance of T.V. sets?The management or union must enter into an agreement with the Welfare Board to maintain the T.V. sets in good working condition at all times. Can an industrial establishment request a T.V. set if they already possess one?Requests for supplying a new T.V. set will only be entertained after the return of the previous T.V. set, if applicable. Is there a preference given to certain applicants under the scholarship scheme?Yes, preference is given to applicants having a place of entertainment in labour-concentrated areas. Can establishments customize the TV programming to suit the preferences of their workers?While establishments are encouraged to exhibit programmes of national importance, they may have some flexibility in selecting additional programming to cater to the preferences and interests of their workers, within the broader objectives of the scheme. Can establishments apply for financial assistance to upgrade existing TV sets under the scheme?The scheme primarily focuses on providing new TV sets to eligible establishments. Financial assistance for upgrading existing TV sets may be considered on a case-by-case basis, subject to the availability of funds and approval from the Welfare Board. Are there any penalties for non-compliance with the terms of the scheme?Yes, if the management or union fails to comply with the scheme's provisions or agreement, the Welfare Board may take measures such as withdrawing the TV set or recovering any grant-in-aid amount provided, along with interest.
