Notes - The various courses of studies at different levels for which NEC's financial assistance is admissible would be those as decided by the NEC from time to time keeping in view the requirements of specialized manpower of the North Eastern Region. NEC may increase or decrease the total number of scholarships subject to the availability of funds/allocation of budget from time to time. However, the numbers would be fixed as per the normative allocation accepted for different NE states. Students selected for grant of NEC Scholarship will be entitled to receive same from the date of admission/date of commencement (Date of registration in case of M.Phil / Ph.D.) whichever is later till completion of the course, subject to maximum period as prescribed in Para 3.3 above. In case of doubt/clarification regarding the above rules, the matter shall be referred to: Director (HRD&E), North Eastern Council Secretariat, Shillong - 793003, Contact No. 03642522674. Eligibility The applicant must be a permanent resident of any of the North Eastern States. The applicant must be admitted in Diploma, Degree, Post-graduate or registered in M.Phil. / Ph.D. courses of any institute recognized by the Government. The total annual income of the applicant's parents/guardian (from all sources) shall not exceed ₹8,00,000. The applicant must fulfill the following eligibility criteria in the previous qualifying examination: Level: Diploma; Qualifying Examination: HSLC / HSSLC / Secondary School Leaving / Senior Secondary Leaving certificate examination from a recognized State/Central board with a minimum of 60% marks in aggregate. Level: Degree; Qualifying Examination: HSSLC/Senior Secondary Leaving certificate examination from a recognized State/Central board with a minimum of 60% marks in aggregate. Level: Post Graduate; Qualifying Examination: Degree level examination in any discipline (BA / BSc / BE / BTech / MBBS / LLB / BCA / BBA etc.) of any recognized Institute/ University with a minimum of 60% marks in aggregate. Level: M.Phil. / Ph.D.; Qualifying Examination: PG degree from any recognized University with a minimum of 60% marks in aggregate. Notes - In case of a tie, preference shall be given to the candidate having a lesser family income. There will not be any reservation/quota on the basis of category/religion/gender. At the time of availing of the scholarship, the applicant must not be in receipt of any other scholarship/financial assistance from any other source. Once selected, the scholarship shall be available to a selected student for the prescribed duration of a course subject to fulfillment of renewal conditions. Extension of scholarship beyond the prescribed period of study will not be entertained. Students enrolled in the integrated courses will be entitled to receive the scholarship for the full duration of the course as per the admissible rates. The scholarship for M.Phil. will be available for 2 years and for the Ph.D. scholarship shall be for 3 years. SELECTION FOR SCHOLARSHIPS AND DISBURSAL - The merit lists will be drawn from among finally verified applications as per the scheme guidelines and after following the laid down procedure on the NSP. Selection of students for M. Phil and Ph. D. will be made on the basis of the topic of research/Synopsis which has relevance to the problems/issues related to the NE Region. The Subjects/topics for M.Phil and Ph.D. should invariably be directly, specifically, and currently relevant to NE Region. Basic and theoretical research shall not be favored in general. The scholarship is purely on a merit basis. The merit list will be prepared exclusively on the basis of marks obtained by the candidate in the qualifying exams and complying with the level-of-course-wise slots allotted to the states. In case the allotted quota remains unfilled for want of eligible candidates, the same may be distributed to remaining eligible students from the other NE States, as per their inter-se merit list. The scholarships will be disbursed to selected students by NEC directly in their provided and verified bank accounts using DBT mode as per the extant guidelines. RENEWAL OF SCHOLARSHIP - Every renewal of the scholarship is for a period of one academic year only, if not otherwise specified. All existing and eligible beneficiaries of the scholarship are required to fill up the renewal form on NSP every year during their entire course period. The student must upload a previous exam marks sheet/pass certificate during the renewal application. In the case of students studying for M.Phil / Ph.D., the renewal application shall be accompanied by the latest progress report from the guide countersigned by the Registrar of the Institute. To draw a scholarship under the renewal category, the beneficiary must pass in the particular year or be promoted to the next semester/year. In case the student could not pass all papers but was promoted to next year, as per extant rules, he/she may be considered for renewal of scholarships subject to the condition that no additional backlog, from previous years, is pending against his/her name. In case the student is not promoted to next year or has backlog papers pending against his/her name for more than one year, he/she shall not receive a further scholarship for the remaining course period. It will be the responsibility of the Institute level verifying officer to ensure that the student has been promoted for a year or does not have pending backlog papers for more than a year, before accepting the application on NSP for further processing. Otherwise, such applications shall be rejected on NSP after recording reasons. Any break in scholarship, during the entire course period, shall make the beneficiary non-eligible for further receipt of the scholarship for that specific course. The students shall not be provided with an option to make renewal applications in subsequent years. The student may, however, apply as a fresh applicant, upon securing admission in any advanced course, at a later stage. A request for renewal of students who have changed their subject of study will not be entertained for renewal if the students have availed of the scholarship for the previous course or part of it. A request for renewal of scholarship of such student beneficiaries who have changed their Institution of study will not be entertained for renewal. There will be no merit list generation for renewal applications. Renewal scholarship will be disbursed to all eligible and duly verified applications by NEC, directly in their verified bank accounts using DBT mode as per the extant guidelines. The request for renewal of scholarships of all existing applications belonging to Academic Year 2019-20 and before will be processed as per the prevailing procedure during Academic Year 2019-20, where the respective State Government will be responsible for directly disbursing scholarships in the student's bank accounts.

Exclusions A sponsored candidate under full employment during the period of study or working/in-service candidates shall not be eligible to receive the scholarship. The Scholarship will not be available for an internship or any practical training. A request for renewal of students who have changed their subject of study will not be entertained for renewal if the students have availed of the scholarship for the previous course or part of it. A request for renewal of scholarship of such student beneficiaries who have changed their Institution of study will not be entertained for renewal.
