Khushi SchemeAre you sure you want to sign out?CancelSign OutEngEnglish/à¤/à¤/à¤/àa¥€Sign InBackDetailsBenefitsEligibilityApplication ProcessDocuments RequiredFrequently Asked QuestionsSources And ReferencesFeedbackSomething went wrong. Please try again later.OkYou need to sign in before applying for schemesCancelSign InSomething went wrong. Please try again later.OkIt seems you have already initiated your application earlier.To know more please visit CancelApply NowCheck EligibilityOdishaKhushi SchemeHealthHygieneSanitary NapkinsSanitary PadsSchool GirlsDetailsKhushi (meaning "Happiness" in Odia) is a female health and hygiene program run by the Government of Odisha to provide free sanitary pads to girl students in Odisha. It was launched on February 26, 2018, by the Chief Minister of Odisha Naveen Patnaik. "»¿Khushi scheme of Odisha aims to provide good menstrual hygiene care to women of the state. The initiative aims to promote health and hygiene among school going adolescent girls leading to higher retention in school and greater empowerment of women. ">¿About the InitiativeUnder the scheme, the government will provide free sanitary napkins to 17 lakh girls studying in Classes 6 to 12 in government and governmentaided schools. The scheme is being implemented by the health and family welfare department of the state at a cost of Rs 70 crore per year."»¿Why the scheme has been initiated? As per the data of the National Family Health Survey, in Odisha 53 per cent of women use unhygienic methods and around 69 per cent of women use cloth during menstruation. To address this dire scenario, the Odisha government has initiated Khushi Scheme.ï»; A portal, called "Khushi" has been made for keeping the track of the inventory and distribution of sanitary pads. How this Web Application works: Web application works to provide sanitary napkins to GOVT. SCHOOLS. The web portal keeps track of all inventory and stock management. Different users having access can see the reports and do necessary operations."»¿BenefitsGirl students from grade 6th to 12th in government and government-aided schools will receive free sanitary padsEligibilityAll school girls from classes 6th to 12th are eligible. Application ProcessOfflineNo application process is required. The stock is made available and distributed through the school.Documents RequiredNo documents needed.Frequently Asked QuestionsIs this scheme only for girls?Yes, this scheme is only for girlsWho is eligible for this scheme?The school-going girls from class 6th to 12th are eligible under this scheme. What is the purpose of this scheme? The purpose of this scheme is to improve the health and Hygiene of the girls with respect to their menstrual cycles, and to also retain them in the school even after they reach puberty. Is there any such benefit for grown up women in Odisha? Yes, The government of Odisha is also providing sanitary napkins to rural women at subsidised rates of Rs. 6 for six napkins through ASHA workers. Is there any application procedure to get free sanitary napkins under this scheme? No, the school takes care of the distribution of the sanitary pads to the girls, no application is needed for this. How do they keep track of the stocks and distribution and ensure proper monitoring of this scheme? To address that, an app called "Khushi" has been created which helps them monitor and keep track of this scheme. Sources And References Khushi Website Ok Was this helpful? News and UpdatesNo new news and updates availableShareSomething went wrong. Please try again later.OkYou need to sign in before applying for schemesCancelSign InSomething went wrong. Please try again later.OkIt seems you have already initiated your application earlier.To know more please visit CancelApply NowCheck EligibilityOdishaKhushi SchemeHealthHygieneSanitary NapkinsSanitary PadsSchool GirlsDetailsBenefitsEligibilityApplication ProcessDocuments RequiredFrequently Asked QuestionsKhushi (meaning "Happiness" in Odia) is a female health and hygiene program run by the Government of Odisha to provide free sanitary pads to girl students in Odisha. It was launched on February 26, 2018, by the Chief Minister of Odisha Naveen Patnaik. Khushi scheme of Odisha aims to provide good menstrual hygiene care to women of the state. The initiative aims to promote health and hygiene among school going adolescent girls leading to higher retention in school and greater empowerment of women."»; About the InitiativeUnder the scheme, the government will provide free sanitary napkins to 17 lakh girls studying in Classes 6 to 12 in government and governmentaided schools. The scheme is being implemented by the health and family welfare department of the state at a cost of Rs 70 crore per year."»¿Why the scheme has been initiated? As per the data of the National Family Health Survey, in Odisha 53 per cent of women use unhygienic methods and around 69 per cent of women use cloth during menstruation. To address this dire scenario, the Odisha government has initiated Khushi Scheme. "i»; A portal, called "Khushi" has been made for keeping the track of the inventory and distribution of sanitary pads. How this Web Application works: Web application works to provide sanitary napkins to GOVT. SCHOOLS. The web portal keeps track of all inventory and stock management. Different users having access can see the reports and do necessary operations."»;OkWas this helpful?ShareNews and UpdatesNo new news and updates available©2024Powered byDigital India Corporation(DIC)Ministry of Electronics & IT (MeitY)Government of India®Quick LinksAbout UsContact UsScreen ReaderAccessibility StatementFrequently Asked QuestionsDisclaimerTerms & ConditionsUseful LinksGet in touch4th Floor, NeGD, Electronics Niketan, 6 CGO Complex, Lodhi Road, New Delhi - 110003, Indiasupport-myscheme[at]digitalindia[dot]gov[dot]in(011) 24303714Last Updated On: 28/03/2024 | v-2.1.1